
Permits are required for the following*:

- Attached decks and patio covers that exceed 120 sq. ft. total aggregate area
- Detached accessory structures that exceed 200 sq. ft. total aggregate area (e.g. gazebos or pergolas)
- Room additions
- Guest houses
- Garage additions
- Fences and walls that exceed six ft. in height
- Retaining walls that exceed four ft. in height measured from the bottom of the footing
- Solar panels
- Additions or modifications to electrical systems - excluding fixtures
- Additions or modifications to air systems - excluding filters
- Converting garage to a living area
- Demolition of any structure
- Remodeling (depending on the project)
- Swimming Pools and Spas
- Patio enclosures
- New single family homes
- Commercial Projects
- Fire sprinklers, alarms and alarm panels

Note: Barriers are required for both above and in-ground pools.

*This list is not all inclusive; permits may be required for other activities. Call 520-568-9098 for questions or more information.